Demonstrating Professionalism

The multi-coloured Demonstrating Professionalism pathway is interwoven with each of the other six pathways. Each skill area has been developed with the goal of supporting your professional success, while ensuring the University of Alberta continues to fulfill its commitment to “uplifting the whole people”.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Pathways</th>
<th>Competency</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Multi-coloured Path: Demonstrating Professionalism</td>
<td>G. Demonstrate Professionalism</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| There are no face-to-face courses offered specifically for this competency. Instead, the skills required in this competency are woven into the other competencies. | a) Demonstrate Self-Management
b) Pursue professional development
c) Demonstrate accountability
d) Pursue personal development
e) Develop plans and organize resources
f) Demonstrate integrity
g) Demonstrate dependability
h) Exercise judgment
i) Use diplomacy and tact when interacting with others
j) Identify and solve problems
k) Protect the reputation of the department and University
l) Demonstrate a sensitivity to diversity
m) Maintain confidentiality |