Unit Action Plans: Preparing for Emergencies on Campus
Linda Hui, Environment, Health and Safety
Tuesday, September 19, 2017
Location: ED South, Room 277

Recent events demonstrate the range in how well people cope with disasters and emergencies. Fortunately, for most of the U of A campus community, our capacity to respond to personal impacts have not been seriously tested. Your unit action plan (UAP) is essential to preparing for emergencies should they occur on campus. U of Alerts is one tool to notify you that an emergency has occurred so that you can act quickly for your safety. Emergency Management will present the video "Shooter on Campus, Know You Can Survive" and share current approaches to responding to an active shooter event.
